NY Project Hope Coping with COVID

NY PROJECT HOPE AT THE SLOATSBURG PUBLIC LIBRARY

TUESDAY, JANUARY 18, 6:00PM

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 6:00PM

FOR THE MONTHS OF DECEMBER THROUGH FEBRUARY, NY Project Hope in Rockland County will be working with the Sloatsburg Library to bring emotional and educational support to the Sloatsburg community, and beyond. NY Project Hope crisis counselors will be available at the library for support sessions to educate and inform those in need of services. All support sessions will be anonymous and confidential, with a separate entrance for all sessions.

The COVID-19 pandemic is a global health crisis that has also greatly impacted mental health. NY Project Hope is a statewide crisis counseling initiative available to every New York resident. The Crisis Counseling Program provides support, outreach, and education to assist individuals and communities coping with COVID-19 ... and is always free, confidential and anonymous.
